Funding Requirements and Wire Authorization

Truist funding process and expectations are as follows:

- Funding is made by wire transfer.
- Include complete wiring instructions in the loan file.
- The Truist Wire Authorization form (COR 0004) or a similar form is only required by the lender who does not utilize a warehouse line.
- Provide typed or computer generated Wire Instructions/authorization must be. Truist will not accept handwritten wire authorizations/instruction.
- Seller is responsible for notifying Truist in writing of any update or change in its authority documentation and any applicable delegation of authority establishing the individuals authorized to provide Wire Instructions or to initiate transactions sale pursuant to the Correspondent Loan Purchase Agreement.
- Funding will not constitute waiver of any of Truist's rights or remedies under the Correspondent Loan Purchase Agreement and Truist's payment obligation is discharged and satisfied upon receipt by the beneficiary bank when delivered in accordance with the Wire Instructions.
- Any Wire Instructions containing a beneficiary's name and beneficiary's bank account number may be paid by the beneficiary's bank solely on the basis of the beneficiary's bank account number, even if the beneficiary's bank records identify a name or owner different from the beneficiary named by Seller in the Wire Instructions.
- Truist has no obligation to detect errors in Seller's Wire Instruction and If Truist believes the Wire Instructions are ambiguous or may contain errors, in its sole discretion Truist may, but is not obligated to, delay the execution of any wire or funds transfer pending receipt of clarification from Seller.
- Seller is solely responsible for ensuring the accuracy of all information contained in each Wire Instruction and Truist has no duty whatsoever to verify the accuracy of any such request, nor will it be liable for losses or damages arising out of requests containing erroneous information or in delaying any Wire Instructions in good faith.
- Truist requires bailee letters be submitted with the original Note from warehouse lenders for all closed loans.

Note: Correspondent lenders, who are financial institutions (banks, savings and loans, credit unions) or who are wholly owned subsidiaries of a financial institutions, are not required to attach Bailee letters to the original Note. However, these "exempt" clients must provide correct wiring instructions using either the Truist Wire Authorization form (COR 0004) or a similar form, provided the same information is made available to Truist.
